None of the portfolios are vacant, but it is proposed to create new cabinet offices in order to secure the co-operation of the former opposition leaders. Among those urged for the new offices are the most active leaders of the parties which were opposed to the government prior to the war. These include Count Chuma, Count Isakagi, Count Matsukata and Viscount Shanagawa.

Scott, was ordered by the other five judges of the district, sitting as a court, to transfer to their docket the case in which Editor Rosewater of the Bee is accused of libel by the wife of ex-Sheriff Bennett. This was the result of a motion by Mr. Rosewater before the five judges to have some other judge preside at the trial since he regarded the prejudice of Judge Scott as a bar to a fair trial before him. Judge Scott declared his ability to conduct the trial fairly and refused to allow the papers to be removed. Then the judges ordered the clerk to produce the papers in the case at 9 a. m. to-day and cited Mr. Rosewater to be present for trial. When Judge Scott heard this he at once entered in his journal a decree nullifying the order of the five judges and cited Rosewater to appear in his court at 9 a. m. this morning for trial. He further instructed the clerk that if he attempted to carry the papers in the case from his court room he would have him jailed for contempt.

WHAT PROFIT LIES IN THE WATER SUIT

A BUSINESS MAN TALKS ON THE SUBJECT.

All that Can be Possibly Gained He Says, is the Annuling of the Franchise and if that is Done What Has the City Accomplished For the Money they Have Spent?

Now that the city authorities are going to attack the water company in the courts, the question naturally arises, "What are they going to gain by it?"

There are always two sides to a question, and The Gazette, having no ax to grind, wishes to be fair with both.

"There is one thing certain," said a business man this morning, "that the suit will cost some one some money. Eastern men who hold, I understand, the bonds of the company, are not going to sit calmly down and let anyone interfere with the value of their holding without due cause for such action. They, in all probability, will fight the thing to a finish in addition to the defense that the Water Company will in all probability make. Then suppose that the city should win the suit? The franchise is all that they could get and then the question would arise 'What shall we do with it?' The loss of the franchise would take certain privileges away from the company and would allow any one who desired to put in a plant to do so. The suit would not turn the water company's property over to the city if it was won; it would simply annul the franchise and each side would have to pay their costs. Whether or not the water company is as corrupt and disoblising as they say, is a question for the people interested to decide and I wish to neither commend or defend them but at the same time would it not be well, before an expensive legal battle that may last years is begun, to find out just what is to be gained and what is to be lost. If the city and the people can gain, begin the suit; but if there is no profit for the city and the people, why spend the money? Let us have a little light. It is strange indeed that any corporation depending on the public for patronage, should adopt rules or regulations so harsh as those of the water company are said to be, without cause for so doing. Have all the people who have complaints gone to headquarters with them, or have they confined their kicking to street corner conversation? 'Be sure you're right, then go ahead, is my motto.'"

PRAISE FOR COL. SMITH'S LECTURE

Milwaukee Sentinel Says It Is a Lesson in Patriotism.

A delighted audience filled Plymouth church last evening, and went away charmed with Colonel Nicholas Smith's lecture, "War Songs," says the Milwaukee Sentinel. The affair was under the auspices of E. B. Wolcott Post, G. A. R., which provided a setting for the lecture in the shape of a chorus and stereopticon views. The speaker held the attention of the audience to the close. He said in opening: "The war song is the beginning of the people of every nation. Great changes in national life, whether reformatory, revolutionary, political or religious, have been powerfully aided by songs and ballads, and the battle-song has never been silent in any prosperous country on the globe." He vividly illustrated the influence of the war song among the Norsemen who "lived to sing and sang to die." The songs of the civil war in England, which stand out so prominently in the history of that country; the immortal Marseillaise, which revolutionized France, and which he mentioned as the most perfect, perhaps, of all battle hymns; and the wonderful "Watch on the Rhine," the psalm of all Germans in the Franco-Prussian war, were treated in a most interesting manner.

"The history of American national airs," he said, "begins with 'Yankee Doodle,' and although it is not American by birth and the words are of the silliest character, the tune has been an inspiration in three wars." The story of Hail Columbia and that splendid outburst of patriotism, "The Star Spangled Banner," were given in such a fashion as to command applause from the audience, and the rehearsing of the flag at Sumter in 1865, in which the song bore so prominent a part was one of the stirring climaxes of the lecture.

But the deepest interest, of course, centered around the grand songs of the union the product of the civil war. Colonel Smith handled with great tact and vigor the theme, rich in anecdote and illustration. The story of "John Brown's Body," he said was a spontaneous generation of the uprising of the north. The composition of the famous "Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Julia Ward Howe, "the soul's product of a mighty moment," was strikingly compared with the effort in 1865 to write a national song in competition for the prize of $500. Colonel Smith's account of the wonderful marching song, "Battle Cry of Freedom," was full of impassioned passages which thrilled the audience. Pathos, humor and patriotism are intermingled in the story of this inspiring song. The effect of the song in marches and in battle seems to have been almost supreme, and an interesting description was given of how it was sung by 10,000 voices in a national convention, that it might arouse enthusiasm for the greatest soldier of his time.

Throughout the lecture is a unique, powerful plea for the better understanding of the songs of the nation which have been inspired by a spirit representing the highest form of American patriotism.

A Splendid Wife.

Lots of dealers spend a neat little sum each year in advertising but don't back it up by giving their customers goods that will bring them back. This is a mistake and reminds us of the man who died and made application to St. Peter for admittance to heaven on the ground that his wife was a church member. Our little talks are just to start you with us. We calculate to treat you so well that once a customer you will stay with us.

WIRE FENCE SAVED A LAD FROM DEATH

FRIGHTENED HORSE BOLTING TOWARD THE RIVER.

Savage Dog Attacked the Animal that T. H. Bidwell's Two Children Were Driving and But For the Hidden Wires in a Willow Hedge They Would Have Drowned.

A barb-wire fence saved the life of T. H. Bidwell's little son last evening as it was the barrier that stood between the little boy and a watery grave. The lad with his sister was returning home from school, driving a horse attached to a r. ad cart. At the upper end of "Goose Island," a savage dog belonging to Anton Welitz, attacked the horse, which broke into a run, dashed through a fire board fence, and then made a wild run towards the river. The little girl was thrown out of the cart as it whirled over the rough ground and the horse was making straight for the river. Those watching expected to see it lunge into the current to free itself from the dog but hidden in the willows that form a hedge along the river bank was a barb wire fence. The horse went at full speed against the wires, which luckily were strong enough to hold the frightened animal, and they were thus saved. This morning Officer Kruse shot the dog. The little girl was severely bruised by being thrown from the cart, and at first it was thought her right arm was broken, but examination revealed nothing but bodily bruises.

MISTAKE CAUSED A FIRE ALARM.

Cotton Factory Watchman Rang the Bell an Hour Too Early.

The ringing of the bell at the upper cotton factory at an unusual hour last evening at 8:07 o'clock, caused an alarm of fire to be turned in at the west side fire station. A thousand people or more quickly congregated at the factory, expecting to see a fire, but were somewhat disappointed when informed that the watchman had made a mistake in the time, 9 o'clock being the hour for ringing the bell.

A REMARKABLE PONY

An Affectionate Animal That Shows Almost Human Intelligence.

John C. Krantz of Baltimore is the owner of a Western pony in which he takes a great deal of pride. The horse is named Dick and is one of those pieces of horse flesh which seem to have almost human understanding. Dick is small enough to go through the small door cut in the stable door which is intended for the entrance of a man. He prefers to enter by the smaller door and sometimes tries to take the carriage to which he is harnessed in with him. This, it is needless to say, results in failure. He considers himself above the common herd and with good reason.

He will not have his harness put on in the stable, but must be taken into the office for that purpose. He then consents to be led out to be hitched to the carriage. Dick is very fond of cream peppermint drops; the ordinary lozenges he will not touch. In order to get these at the end of each drive he is taken to one of Mr. Krantz's stores. His driver then goes inside for the candies. If he wishes to do so Dick will calmly walk across the pavement and enter the door, much to the amusement of the on-lookers and the edification of the children. The sweetmeats are given to the animal and he backs out.

He always gazes after his master with a look of inquiry in his eyes, and puts his fore feet on the pavement when Mr. Krantz leaves the carriage. Mr. Krantz thinks his pet can be taught to do almost anything, and if he had the time would try to educate Dick himself. The horse is very fond of his master, and on all occasions shows this affection. There is nothing too good for Dick and he evidently deserves it.

YOUNG, BUT WISE.

What a Little French Girl Saw at a Ball to Amuse Her.

The little French girl stood at my elbow while I wrote. She was leaning on the window sill, one little hand supporting her black head. Far across the lawn she could hear the rise and fall of music and the sound of laughter and of tripping feet. I was very lonely. It wasn't complimentary to the little French girl, but the little French girl did not care for dancing and I did. Suddenly she gave a little laugh.

"Why are you giggling?" I asked rather crossly.

"Because the world amuses me," she murmured.

A very good reason to be sure. But when the world amused me I never laughed. Patinette is more than clever for ten years, and more bizarre in her notions than clever, so I asked:

"Why does it amuse you?"

"Well, par example, is it not bete to dance, to dance always one way, round and round with no aim, to get nowhere, only to go round, to twirl?"

"Yes; very stupid."

"And is it not bete to stay up till 12 when one's bed is ready at 8 and one's eyes sleepy? And is it not stupid to wear a decollete gown and long gloves when one's arms are prettier than one's neck? The world m'amuse!" And she laughed softly to herself, and I could not help thinking what she said was true; and I no longer envied the merry-makers, but thought anyone would envy me my solitude a deux and my intellectual companion. Some moods need only a straw to balance them.

HE PULLED HIM OUT.

And Then Found That He Had Helped Out a Family Quarrel.

The other evening, as a muscular person was passing a house, a lady who stood at the gate called out to him: "Sir, I appeal to you for protection!"

"What's the matter?" he asked, as he stopped short.

"There's a man in the house and he wouldn't go out of doors when I ordered him to."

"He wouldn't, eh? We'll see about that." Thereupon the man gave the woman his coat to hold and sailed into the house. He found a man at the supper table and took him by the neck and remarked: "Nice kind of a brute you are, eh? Come out of this or I'll break every bone in your body!"

The man fought, and it was not until a chair had been broken and the table upset that he was hauled out of doors by the legs, and given a fling through the gates.

"Now, then, you brass-faced old tramp, you move on, or I'll finish you!"

"Tramp! tramp!" shouted the victim, as he got up. "I'm no tramp! I own this property and live in this house!"

"You do?"

"Yes, and that's my wife holding your coat."

"Thunder!" whispered the muscular man as he gazed from one to the other, and realized that it was the wife's method of finishing a row she had been having with her husband. And then he made a grab for his coat and disappeared into the darkness.

A Bible That Weighs 320 Pounds.

The largest bible in the world is to be found in Rome. It is written in Hebrew and weighs 320 pounds. It is as much as three men can do to carry it.

In the year 1512 a syndicate of Venetian Jews offered Pope Julius II. the weight of the bible in gold, but his holiness declined to part with it. At the present value of gold the bible would be worth $875,000.

AN AMERICAN QUEEN

AND HER FOUR DAUGHTERS.

A Scene on the 3 O'clock Express Between Boston and Worcester, Mass.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

It was a pretty sight. The passengers turned around in their seats to better note the something unusual.

A noble looking woman had entered the car, followed by four daughters, ageing from fifteen to twenty years.

The mother had one of those good and wholesome faces that one so rarely sees, but that men and women always admire. The daughters had the same healthy, wholesome look. They were well born, well cared for, and, without doubt, never suffered from any of the ills that curse many women.

Mothers owe a duty to their daughters that in too many cases is neglected.

Nature has provided a time for purification, and if the channels are obstructed, the entire system is poisoned and misery comes.

Mrs. Chas. Hines of Duncannon, Pa., a woman of large experience, in speaking of a mother's duty, says: "Watch carefully your daughters' physical development."

"Mothers should see that nature is assisted, if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves."

Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbance of the stomach and kidneys.

Violent headaches often attack the victim, pains shoot every where. Extreme irritability follows quickly, and then utter despondency overwhelms the already overburdened life. Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's whole future will be darkened.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Mrs. Chas. Hines

It Is Free, But Worth a Fortune.

And it is worth a fortune because it is the means of giving health and strength to the weak and complaining—to you, reader. The following splendid proposition is made by Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York city, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. Write him a letter, tell him just how you feel, and he will answer it, free of charge, explaining your case so thoroughly that you will at once understand exactly what your complaint is. Every letter receives his most careful attention, he explains every symptom, telling just what to do to be cured, and for all this he charges nothing.

He is the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, which is doing such enormous good among the suffering. This is the opportunity of a lifetime for everyone, especially those living at a distance from large cities, to consult entirely free, the most eminent and successful of specialists. No fee to pay and no journey to make. The doctor makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and you cannot do better than write him at once. You will without doubt be made strong and well by doing so. Thousands of others have. Don't delay.

An Ample Fund of Pleasure and Health may be derived from an ocean voyage and foreign travel. But before one gets one's "sea legs" as the sailors say, the abominable ailments, begotten of sea sickness, have usually to be gotten over. Delicate people suffer, of course, more than the robust from this ailment, but few sea travelers escape it. Against the frightful nausea it produces, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a reliable defense, and is so esteemed by tourists, commercial travelers, yachtsmen and men of letters. An ailment which the sick and seamen afflict land travelers with weak stomachs. This is often brought on by the arrival of a railway train. Disquietude in the gastric region from this cause is always remedied by the Bitters, which also prevents and cures cholera and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney trouble, constipation and biliousness.

FREE TRADE HARD ON TEXAS SHEEP

W. R. HOSKINS SAYS THAT PEOPLE ARE SORE.

Republicans May Not Carry the State But they Will Make Great Gains and Elect Some Congressmen as the Tariff Question Has Worked Them Up.

W. R. Hoskins of San Angéles, Texas, is in the city visiting his brother, J. A. Hoskins, 14 Ruger avenue. Mr. Hoskins is now engaged in sheep raising in the Lone Star state, and says the people of Texas are waking up and will wheel the state into the republican line. "We may not carry the state this fall," he said, "but we will show you immense republican gains, and hope to elect several republican congressmen. In the presidential election we will whip up a republican victory. Business men down our way, begin to realize that free trade is not the thing for even the big state of Texas, and are coming over to the republican party in large numbers." Mr. Hoskins now has four thousand five hundred sheep on his ranch, and is buying more, anticipating that a change in the government will soon occur that will restore the tariff on wool.

The better class of farmers wives have always admired solid silver spoons, and have bought them for wedding presents. Only a few of the richer families have felt they could afford them for their own use. The present prices that A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewellers" are asking for all solid silver goods, makes it possible for every family to have solid silver spoons and forks. Articles of solid silver make heirlooms.

We showed women at our former fur opening that it was not necessary to go away from home to get a seal-skin, and several took advantage of the opportunity and bought and have never had cause to regret it. The fact is, we are willing to sell them through Newland & Co., at a closer margin than the city houses that have big rents to pay. Quality of these the very best. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Don't think you can't get the genuine Middlesex sock only here. We are making a sale of their celebrated stockings at 15 cents per pair or two pairs 25 cents. They are the regular 35 cent kind and no store in Janesville can meet our price on them without losing money. We make a little money on them, thank you. Come in and see them. T. J. Zeigler.

CLOTHES are cheap now. Don't pay the high priced tailor $25 or $30 for an ordinary business suit. It is too much, for we will guarantee to furnish you a better fitting business suit, equally as good cloth, trimming and workmanship at $20. We are agents for Royal Tailor suits $16 and upwards. T. J. Zeigler.

OUR children's suit sale is a great success. Most anybody knows a good thing when he sees it. At $3.85 your choice of any suit which formerly sold at $6 and $8, is a good thing, I guess. We should be pleased to show you through our children's department. T. J. Zeigler.

MR. KIMBALL NAMED FOR ASSEMBLYMAN

THIRTY EIGHT CONSECUTIVE BALLOTS TAKEN.

Then a Recess For Ten Minutes Was Decided on—The Fight Was Between Fenner Kimball, Cyrus Miner and W. G. Wheeler, O. F. Nowlan's Name Being Withdrawn.

It required thirty-nine ballots for the republicans of the third assembly district to name their candidate this afternoon.

Fenner Kimball is the man. Thirty-eight ballots without a nomination. That's the way the convention stood when they took a ten minutes' recess at 3:45 o'clock. E. J. Green was elected chairman and H.

York, which has been on for several days. New York is the greatest cloak mart of America, and from that point about all the best grade cloaks are shipped. Orders placed with cloak companies there two months ago are being cancelled daily by telegrams, and all of the dealers declare that they have not a cloak in the house that is available for this season's sales.

The supply which is given out annually by the New York companies represent the labor of thousands of cloak makers, and that they should strike at the coming of the cold season, put myriads of merchants throughout the country in a most embarrassing position, owing to their failure to be able to fulfill many promises they had made. Wholesale business houses in Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and especially among the larger western wholesale firms and who are dispensers to the eastern retailers have not a cloak to sell.

This being the "cloak year" for many families the women folks are naturally very anxious to buy early and get the new styles, and if the present stock of our merchants runs short many sorrows will throng in some households where they were slow in purchasing. If the strike in New York city is not settled soon it will entail a loss in the cloak trade that has not been known in many years and bankrupt many wholesale houses, who have placed every order in New York manufacturers hands for their supply of this season's stock.

AT REST IN THE FINAL SLEEP

Mrs. A. C. Bates.

The remains of Mrs. A. C. Bates were buried in Oak Hill this morning. Funeral services were held at the home on Milton avenue at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton, of Washington Avenue Methodist church, Milwaukee, assisted by Rev. S. P. Wilder, of the Congregational church. The song service was rendered by a quartette consisting of Mrs. J. F. Sweeney, Mrs. Charles L. Clark, Ed. Church and George Paris. There was a large attendance of neighbors and family friends, many of whom accompanied the funeral party to the grave. The pall bearers were the three sons of the deceased—J. W. Bates, E. E. Bates, George H. Bates, and three nephews—Orin Bates, W. J. Bates and A. M. Norris.

Mrs. Sarah Nixon.

R. W. Scott received the sad news last evening of the death of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Nixon, of Philadelphia. Pa. Mrs. Nixon has suffered for some time with a cancer, which caused her death. She leaves three sons and one daughter: R. W. Scott, of this city; William and John Nixon, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Sarah Nickelson, of Philadelphia. The burial will take place in Philadelphia.

Is People's Confidence Shaken?

We have always made it a point to have enough of any one article on hand to supply the demand when we make a special run, and if we do not have enough our customers can rest assured that we will take their orders as long as they give them in and deliver as soon as the goods arrive. This thing of trying to "bull" the market and then be sold out in two hours, does more to shatter the confidence of the people than anything else. We cannot sell twenty-eight pounds of sugar for $1, neither can the gentleman down the street, and make money. Not a jobbing house in the United States can buy it for any such money—less than four cents a pound. We are in business to make a little money, and we guarantee to always treat our customers well, give them value received, and always full weight and measure. The more sugar he sells at twenty-eight pounds for $1, the more money he loses, we are satisfied.

MASCUINITIES.

A thief was captured, tried, convicted and sentenced within a few hours in New York last week.

Chicago recently waged successful war against the sale of candy containing alcohol. New York is now doing the same.

In the dominions of the British empire alone some 8,000 individuals vanish every year without leaving any indication as to their whereabouts or even appearing again.

A fashion paper says: "See that your trousers are properly creased before making a call." If you are calling on your girl, however, you generally press your suit after you get there.

The merchant tailors of the town have sent to the authorities of the university of Graz, Austria, praying that hereafter no student shall be given his diploma unless he shall first show that he has paid his tailor bills.

"Fagging" has become entirely obsolete at Eton. Thirty years ago it was carried on with great brutality. "Tom Brown at Rugby" has, it is said, done more to kill the old system in English colleges than any other agency.

CLOAK FAMINE IS IMMINENT.

Strikes in the New York Factories Have Curtailed the Supply.

That a cloak famine stares Janesville in the face is a queer fact that the New York strike has developed. Such is the opinion of many of the merchants about town. It seems strange that such should be the case, but nevertheless, the embryo of circumstances may terminate in a famine and the loss in the cloak trade will be great. The reason of all this is the great cloak-makers' strike in New York, which has been on for several days. New York is the greatest cloak mart of America, and from that point about all the best grade cloaks are shipped. Orders placed with cloak companies there two months ago are being cancelled daily by telegrams, and all of the dealers declare that they have not a cloak in the house that is available for this season's sales.

THE HORSE THIEF STOLE TWO GOOD ANIMALS

THEN NERVE FAILED HIM AND HE FLED.

Forcing an Entrance to a District School He Built a Fire and Slept Comfortably all Night and Arising With the Larks Broke Into Two Farmer's Barns.

A faint hearted horse thief stole two animals up near Milton Junction last night, but his nerve failed him and he let them loose again. A suspicious character was seen loafing about the vicinity last night, and about dark he broke a pane of glass in a school house, built a fire and made himself comfortable for the night. He arose with the larks this morning and stole a horse from A. W. Merrifield's barn in the town of Fulton, which he rode to the farm of C. D. Balch, in the town of Milton, where he appropriated another one from Balch's barn. After riding six miles further toward Fort Atkinson, he abandoned both animals and disappeared. The horses were covered with lather when they were found and showed evidence of a long hard drive. The vicinity was much excited over the affair this morning, but the finding of the animals cooled them down. The thief got away.

BELLS RING TIDINGS OF JOY

Bliss-Monat.

To-day's Chicago Herald says that Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Monat have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marguerite Robina Monat, and George Harvey Bliss, of Florence, Mass. The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening, October 31, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, 4313 Maple avenue, Rogers Park. The bride is a niece of P. J. Monat.

Bunt-abbee.

Miss Fannie Kibbee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kibbee, formerly of this city, but now of St. Paul, and Phillip Barstow Hunt, will be married at that place this evening, the ceremony to be performed at Trinity church. Many Janesville friends will wish the bride and her husband-to-be joy and happiness through a long span of life.

"Not until after midnight."
"Why not before?"
"Because to-day is the anniversary of my second husband's death."—Tammam Times.

A Fair Question.

Judge—This gentleman charges you with stealing his bull-pup, valued at seventy-five dollars. What have you to say?
Prisoner—Well, judge, do you honestly think that a man wot's fool enough to pay seventy-five dollars for a snub-nosed, pig-eyed little brute like that has got sense enough to know his own dog when he sees him?—Good News.

Little Boy—I throwed her in a barrel of whitewash.—Puck.

Elder Sister—Perhaps the caudal appendage is disproportionate to the superficial area.
Johnny—I don't think that's it. I believe there isn't weight enough on the tail.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Sufficient.

"What are you doing, Freddie?" said the painfully smart boy's uncle.
"Drawin' pictures on my slate."
"What is this supposed to represent?"
"A locomotive."
"But why don't you draw the cars?"

A Wifely Protest.

Somebody had done something to provoke the scorn and contumely of Mr. Skaggs, and he was ranting about it in the silliest manner.
"By George," he exclaimed, "I'd like to be the fool-killer for a year or so."
"Oh, no, Hiram," protested Mrs. Skaggs quietly, "you don't want to be placed in a position where you would have to commit suicide."—Detroit Free Press.

A Hit at the Minister.

Minister (to Rory)—Why weren't you at the kirk on Sunday?
Rory—I was at Mr. Dunlop's kirk.
Minister—I don't like you running about to strange kirks in that way. No! that I object to you hearing Mr. Dunlop, but I'm sure ye widna like yer ain sheep straying away into strange pastures.
Rory—I widna care a grain, sir, if it was better grass.—Glasgow Times.

Force of Habit.

Mrs. Bowker—Don't you think it is very strange that Mrs. Stivett's hasn't returned my call yet?
Mr. B.—Not at all; it is merely the result of force of habit.
"How's that?"
"She was a telephone girl before her marriage."—Answers.

The Last Trump.

Life Insurance Agent (after having exhausted all his eloquence)—If all that I have said does not convince you I would insure my life merely to fool my heirs.

FOR SALE.

A model farm of 800 acres 60 miles west of Quincy, Ill., in the Great

Blue Grass Region of Northern Missouri lying three miles from the Hanibal & St. Joe and Santa Fe railways. On this farm are $11,000 in new buildings, fine barns and sheds for stock, the house cost $5,000 four years ago. Missouri is one of the best farming states, and here the soil, timber, grasses, water, fruit, climate and natural advantages are not excelled anywhere in the union. Dr.

St. John resides in northern Missouri;

Dr. Loomis just traveled through it and says the country and crops are fine. Will sell for what land is worth and throw in the buildings, and take a small farm in Wisconsin as part pay.

This is a barg. in some man must have.

THE best investment in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

Strictly Pure White Lead
You cannot afford to use cheap paints. To be sure of getting Strictly Pure White Lead, look at the brand; any of these are safe: "Southern," "Red Seal," "Collier," "Shipman."

FOR COLORS.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors. These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of Strictly Pure White Lead. The desired shade; they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the hands of the painter. Important! Very!

Fur Opening Today and Tomorrow.

For two days we will have on display at our store Henry A. Newland & Co.'s immense line of FUR GARMENTS, including London dyed seal, mink, marten, astrakhan and all known furs, in Jackets, Capes, Muffs, Cravats, etc. Mr. F. A. Jones, representing Newland & Co., will be at our store, take measures for special orders; and explain the merits of the elegant line of garments he carries. This house makes a specialty of London dyed seal garments, and we would advise any one who is thinking of getting a new seal-skin to attend our opening. Newland & Co., gave us a very successful opening in the fall of '92. At that time we sold some beautiful seal and mink garments, as well as other style furs, and we have yet to hear of a single complaint. We can safely recommend this house as furriers of a high order, making nothing but thoroughly reliable garments. Any one making a purchase at this sale will be double protected—having our guarantee, and we have the house back of us to right any just claim. However, their line is a rangy one, and a large variety of medium price jackets, capes, etc., will be on exhibition.

IN ADDITION to the above, we are showing the best line of Furs in Janesville and continually adding to it. Our first shipments were closed out entirely and broken lines will soon be filled in again.

Attend the Big Opening Today and Thursday.
